

Congratulations!!!

To our top 30 CS/IT students of Second Year for getting selected in the External Engagement Program of J.P. Morgan.

Program Objective -

- To develop a strong sustained relationship between J.P. Morgan and D.J. Sanghvi Institute. Mentor the future engineers on emerging technologies by providing in-house experts to train 2nd year students. This program focuses on creating industry-ready technologists adaptable to emerging advance technology trends in the market.

Institute Expectations –

- The tech stack on which students are being trained are in line with the emerging technology trends in the market.
- Extensive assignments are given during the course of the program to ensure each student is comfortable performing hands-on.
- The program is being conducted within the Institute premises and on weekends (will be virtual in current circumstances)
- The students on the program are expected to contribute/actively participate to/in any events related to the program.

Candidate shortlisting process-

- Eligibility criteria for the students of Semester 3.
  - Batch Size = 30 (Branch – IT/Computers)
  - CGPA>7
  - 50% Gender diversity.

Program Construct & Coordinator -

- 10 hours of students self-study, 20 hours of class room training and 10 hours of assignment/project work.
- 1 Year Program comprising of 3 modules.

Benefits –

- Trained students will get a chance to do summer internship at JPMC with a stipend of Rs. 50,000/- per month.
- Placement opportunities at JPMC with a salary of Rs. 14 LPA.